The Purple Generation

The Purple Generation: A Prince tribute celebrating his timeless hits

Woodland Hills, CA

About

The Purple Generation is an eight-member Prince tribute act based in Los Angeles, California. Founded in 2025 by singer, songwriter, and music producer Honore, the group honors Prince's legacy by performing his timeless hits with love and integrity. Inspired by Prince since childhood, Honore considers the tribute both an honor and a dream come true.

Since Prince's catalog spans the 1970s, 1980s, 1990s, and 2000s, The Purple Generation educates as well as entertains, showing just how genius and groundbreaking Prince was. Alongside the major 1980s hits, the group explores Prince's 1990s and 2000s catalog, deep cuts, and B-sides. A typical set runs 90 minutes.

Honore brings his experience as a singer, songwriter, and music producer to the role of Prince, joined on stage by seven other members.

The Purple Generation plays in Los Angeles and has performed at the La Mirada 4th of July Event in front of 30,000 people, Pasadena Paseo with former Prince bassist Andrew Gouché, LighthouseCafe in Hermosa Beach, Huntington Beach, Fantasy Springs Casino, Miramonte Winery, the 2nd and PCH Beachside Beats event, and Southcoast Botanical Gardens. The group plays about 20 shows a year and is available for corporate parties, summer series concerts, music festivals, and venues. One fan said, "That was incredible! I would have paid $150 for a ticket to a show that's THAT good!"
